DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement filed 03/16/2004.

The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97.

Accordingly, the information disclosure statement has been considered by the examiner.

Drawings

2. New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because the drawings do not show the claimed invention such as , a storage means and spool cover. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 13 "free body of water " is vague and indefinite.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5,7-12 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Vetorino 6,220,719.

Regarding claim 1 Vetorino'719 discloses an electric generation device comprising; a body (10,housing ,column 3,line 29,Fig.1) having a top side and a bottom side (see Fig.1) said body being generally cylindrical in shape (see fig.1) and further wherein said body has a opening thereon (see opening at the top Fig.1), a magnet contained within the body of the device wherein the magnet is placed in the opening of the body (12, column 2,line 56,Fig.1),a plurality of wire coil 918,column 2,line 60,Fig.1) enclosed within the body of the electric generation device to collect electron flow (see fig.1); a diode bridge connected to the wire coil wherein the wire coil leads to the diode bridge (20, column 2, line 64,Fig.5).

7. Regarding claim 2-12 and 15-20, Vetorino'719 discloses an electric generation device comprising; opening ,which is contained between the top side and the bottom side of the body (see Fig.1 inside of the 14),a plurality of diode bridges (20)are attached to each other to transport electric power , wherein the diode bridge (20) transforms the flow of energy to a constant polarity for facilitation of storage of electrical power, a spool flange wherein the plurality of wire core are attached thereto (14), a spool cover (10) attached to the spool flange wherein the spool cover covers the spool flange to protect the wire core and the magnet from contaminants and destruction a diode bridge (20) to convert the electron flow to constant polarity wherein a storage means (22) for storing the power collected by the electric generation device.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vetorino'719 in view of Cheung 6,768,230.

Vetorino'719 teaches all limitation of the claimed invention except for an electric generation device being inserted into the a free water and the magnet is moved in response to motion of the water .

Cheung'230 discloses a dynamic system for generation of electric power being inserted into the free water and the magnet is moved in response to motion of the water for the purpose of moving the magnet by water motion (see column 7, line 20-40).

Art Unit: 2834

10. Therefore it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine Vetorino'719 electric generating device with the water moving magnet as taught by Cheung'230 for above mentioned purpose.
